I have the honour to forward herewith an application from V.Amritammah, widow of V.Krishnamachari late 2nd clerk of the District Court, Bellary for the grant of compassionate gratuity under G.O.No.120 Finance (Pension) Department dated 22-3-1932.

2 The petitioner's husband V.Krishnamachari was entertained in this Department as a clerk on 20-7-1918 on Rs.20/- and had put in a total service of 19 years 8 months ~~up to~~ up to 19-3-1938 when he died. He was on duty upto 13-3-1938. He applied for 5 days casual leave from 14-3-1938 to go to Madras to celebrate the marriage of his daughter and died there on 19-3-1938 after marriage on 18-3-1938. No punishments were inflicted on the deceased during his service. He was drawing a salary of Rs.72/- per mensem. It is stated that he was not able to make any provision for the family. He was also suffering from Asthama from a long time and was paying heavy medical bills for medicine.
He has no property either moveable or immoveable.
has not insured his life nor did he subscribe to the General Provident Fund. He has left his wife, the petitioner, and 3 daughters aged 14, 10 and 5 years respectively. The 1st daughter was recently married but has not yet joined her husband. He has also left debts to the extent of Rs.1,400/-. The family of the deceased is in a bad condition and requires pecuniary help. Though the petitioner has relations it is stated that they are not in a position to support the family of the deceased.

3 In these circumstances I consider that the case of the petitioner deserves consideration and I recommend the grant of Rs.600/- as compassionate gratuity. The Service Register and the Record of enquiry by the Revenue Department and the descriptive roll of the party are herewith submitted.

Payment may be made at the Bellary treasury. / A

Wife of

Late V. Krishnamachari,

Clerk, District Court,

BELLARY.

For my address after 30th March, please see para 11.

Respected Sir,

APPLICATION FOR COMPASSIONATE
GRATUITY.

With heart breaking regret I beg to inform you that my husband V. Krishnamachari commenced to celebrate the marriage of his first daughter aged about 14 years, on the 18th March and before the completion of the marriage course on the next day he died of heart failure at 3/20 A.M. on the 19th morning.

2. I am just now engaged in the after death ceremonies at Madras.

3. He has put in 19 or 20 years' service in your Honour's Court and was drawing Rs. 72/- per mensem.

4. By his premature sudden death, I with my 3 daughters have been deprived of our livelihood.

-2- 5

5. Out of 3 daughters one has been married on the 18th March 1938 and two have yet to be educated and married (One of 10 years age, and the other of 5 years age).

6. The premature death of my husband has deprived him of the benefit of the pension.

7. He has not owned any landed property nor has he been able to insure his life or contribute to any Provident Fund.

8. He has no immovable property at all and his moveable property consists of a few wooden materials such as a few chairs, benches and a cot. This is practically nothing.

9. The only interested relatives that I have are, brother of my late husband and two brothers of my own but the salaries drawn by them is so poor and not sufficient to maintain their own children and dependents and so they are not in a position to do anything material to me and to my ~~daughters~~ daughters beyond giving meals for a few days on and off.

10. As I have to maintain myself and yet educate and marry my two daughters and as I am left with nothing to support myself and children, I appeal to your honour's mercy to get me compassionate gratuity and thus relieve me and my helpless children from the threatening inexpressible distress, in consideration of the faithful services of my late husband who gained the goodwill and approbation of the Officers he served under.

11. After the ceremonies are over on the 30th March, I proceed to Hagari and my address thereafter will be as under:

Statement of V. Agnithamma wife of late
V. Krishnanachariy clerk Dt Court Bell

My husband V. Krishnanachariy died on the morning of 19.3.38 at Madras. He was ailing with Asthma and the disease developed for the last 1 year. He left behind his myself and 3 daughters to bear down his loss. My first daughter is aged 14 years. Name. Kanna. Recently married. (2) Ranganamma age 10 years (3) Padma aged 5 years. My deceased husband served under Govt for nearly 20 years.
He left no property for me to live on.
He has not insured his life and contributed to any provident fund. On account of sickness he incurred a debt of Rs 1000 for paying his medical fees. For the marriage of my first daughter he has incurred a debt of Rs 400 in the Coop Socy.
Now I have nothing left to maintain myself and my daughters and to pay for the debts incurred by my husband. My husband has younger brother and an old father. He employed in the Ry Dept at Madras
- salary of Rs 50. He is not in a position to help me and my children. I have old father depending upon my two brothers.

Their earnings are fairly sufficient to maintain their own families. They are not in a position to maintain me and my children. I request that a compassionate grant sufficient to discharge the debts and maintain myself and my children may be granted.

I have no jewels except one pair of bangles which are worth about Rs 40

Statement of Mr. Venkata Chariy son of Raghava Chariy, Clerk Collectors Office Bellary.

The deceased V. Krishnamo Chariy Clerk
Dt. Court Bellary is my brother in law, (wife's brother). He left behind him his widow, 3 daughters. He has his younger brother, Sadagopa Chariy employed at Madras in the Mx S M O on a salary of Rs 50, and an old father aged 76 years. Till recently the deceased father was here and now he is with his second son. The deceased and his brother have some lands in a village near Ankover. Further I know that these lands are encumbered heavily having been mortgaged with possession. To my knowledge the lands may be valued at Rs 20 1500 or Rs 2000, and the sum secured on the mortgage will be about Rs 1500.
The father of the deceased is a dependent on his second son now. The deceased's brother with a meagre salary is not in a position to maintain the widow and her children.

Recently he celebrated the marriage of his eldest daughter for which he took a loan of Rs 400 in the East Serranb Co.

Society Bellary for which I stood a surety.
In addition to this ^{he has} he has incurred debts to an extent of Rs 1000 purely spent for his medical treatment as he was ailing from a long time.

The widow has got her parents and 2 brothers. Her father is an Ex. Manager of the Bellary Municipality. He is now depending on his sons for maintenance.
Her first brother is employed in the M & S M Co on a salary of Rs 40. and the second brother in the agricultural Dept. on a salary of Rs 65. They are not in a position to maintain the widow and her daughters. There are no funds worth mentioning.
